To whomsoever is considering Ms. Immaculate Damancus for a job opportunity

Globaliptrust.com is a publication that focuses on inventors, inventions & amazing creators of tomorrow .We believe that inventors and inventions change the world and hence write about those men and women who are inventing tomorrow.

As a part of our commitment to society we selected Ms. Immaculate among 300 applications from across the world as an intern for the period July-August 2020.She was designated as Revolutionary Thinker Writer Intern (RTWI), as she would be writing about revolutionary inventors in her domain of education. This was to provide her an opportunity to work with some of the best editorial teams in the world yet focus on her domain of study.

We rate Ms. Immaculate as an excellent intern who has demonstrated the mindset to work remotely, understand deadlines and deliver above exceptional results. Her skills in identifying topics of importance and writing non plagiarised articles which are SEO compliant can be rated as one of the best by our editorial standards .We recommend and appreciate her qualities of integrity ,diligence and hard work .

We wish her the best in her journey to life and recommend her as an excellent asset for any organization.
