Dear Student,

With regard to your attendance status at the end of the semester, I hope you are aware (through the CAMU app provided to you and your parents) that your attendance falls short of the required 75% attendance.

We are extremely saddened to know that despite day to day attendance information being provided to you and your parents on your phones, multiple rounds of mentoring and counseling provided by class mentors/faculty and undertakings that you were made to sign, etc., you have not been regular to college and thus not met the requirements of minimum attendance .

We hereby remind you about the undertaking forms you had signed where it was clearly stated that you were aware of your ineligibility to appear for exams/continue into next semester in case you do not reach the required 75% attendance requirements. These undertakings have been made and signed by your parents/guardians on a monthly basis and submitted to your classmentors and coordinators.

Therefore we have been directed by the Principal to inform you that you will be detained for the semester as you are not eligible to enroll for examinations and you have to repeat the semester in the next academic year.

For further clarification, kindly get in touch with the Class Teachers and Office of Admissions.

Hello ma'am,
This is to bring under your notice that I had joined college on 9th December. I was informed that my attendance will be counted 9th December onwards, but the attendance tracker has calculated my aggregate attendance including the days before 9th December thus, leading to less attendance.
Please look into the matter.
Thank you.
