Dear Arunima & Anaurene

Please find the details of an FDP on Emotional Intelligence, being held at Jain University in collaboration with Tatva, an organization devoted to mental health awareness. Requesting you both to attend the same representing IIPR. Kindly go through the details and respond to them via mail with your details (check attachment for the registration form and details).

You are advised to collect the registration fees from the Administrative Office (Ms. Jiji to be contacted) before you leave. Kindly make alternative arrangements for your classes tomorrow. You need not report to college tomorrow, but it would be convenient if you are reachable.

FDP's are an opportunity for the faculty to move beyond the classrooms and syllabus, a chance to interact with colleagues. To that end, we hope that you will have a fruitful day ahead and as a take away from the program, you are to conduct a training/ awareness session for the rest of your colleagues here at IIPR campus during mid semester or on a common day when everyone can attend.

Warm Regards

Sunita Damodar
